

103 Mule and Jockey Puzzle: This is one of the best puzzles of all time. Cut out the three pieces. The trick is to get the rider to mount both animals at the same time without overlapping the two larger pieces. The horses should break into a gallop when it is correctly assembled.

Seckel, Al (2002). The Great Book of Optical Illusions.
Buffalo: Firefly Books.
Created by Sam Lloyd (1841-1911)

Race to the Finish

Instructions

- Put three pieces for each player in the start boxes.
- Move only forward or sideways one space per turn, not backward.

Winner is the first to get all three pieces off the board.

Scott Reed, Hamilton High Chandler, AZ
Adapted from Dino Dodge 'Em by Thinkfun